RANDEL EDWARD
PAGE, JR.,
Plaintiff,

No. 3:23-cv-00851

JUDGE CAMPBELL

MAGISTRATE JUDGE
NEWBERN

vs

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,
Defendants.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF NO-ANSWER DEFAULT JUDGMENT

I, Randel Edward Page Jr., hereby declare that the following statements are true and correct.

1. A Conspiracy violating the Affiants Civil Rights is being executed by Defendants United States of America and its officers, Tennessee, BMHCC, Methodist, Epic, CorVel, and West. The Affiant has provided the Court with evidence of the violations of his Civil Rights. Because of the Fraud being committed against the Affiant, the Affiant contacted the Court Clerk on July 30th to confirm receipt of the Affiants Motion in Opposition to Chief Judge Campbell's dismissal of his case (Doc. No. 57). Court procedures have not been followed by the Court, violating Due Process and causing irreparable damages to the Affiant. Notice to the agent is notice to the principle.

Exhibit A

2. Magistrate Judge Newbern's ultra vires actions have caused financial harm and irreparable damage to the Affiant.
3. The Affiant objected to Chief Judge Campbell's order to dismiss because the order deprives the Affiant of Due Process and the right to protect his life, liberty and property.
4. As part of the Conspiracy against the Affiant, State Actor, CorVel committed fraud against the Affiant. CorVel denied the Affiant benefits and legal counsel. CorVel's actions to conceal the fraud being committed by the United States and its officers continues to violate the Affiants rights to Due Process. CorVel's actions have caused financial harm and irreparable damages to the Affiant.

Exhibit B

5. Because of the Fraud being committed against the Affiant and the violations of procedural Due Process by the Court and its officers, the Affiant request that the Court Clerk enter a no-answer default judgment against the Defendants for the Sum Certain amount of $300 Million.

Exhibit C

The Affiant has taken action to protect his life, liberty and property.

The Affiant reserves all rights under the rule of law to enforce and impose legal remedy for vindication and redress for the violations of his Civil Rights.
